Once in a lifetime opportunity to custom design a mansion on Pulaski Square. This home is made possible by a team of Sottile and Sottile, Charles H. Chewning Interiors, and JAK Homes. You will have the unique opportunity to work in tandem with the builder and interior designer to customize the interior of what will be the finest new build added to Savannah's historic fabric in the last century. The living areas will have a grandness and elegance found in Savannah's historic homes, accentuated by decorative plasterwork on the ceilings, generous traditional moldings, and triple-height windows with panoramic views of Pulaski Square. Even with rich historical details, there is an obvious modern openness to the rooms as they flow from one to the other. The top level is a dramatic roof terrace with a large outdoor fireplace, a secluded spa, and panoramic view of Pulaski Square. House to be completed within 24 months of a signed contract.
