Exceptional building lot on Tybee Island one lot back from the beach/ocean. It is located in a X500 flood zone and is R-2 zoning allowing for one and two family residential. Build your own floor plan to maximize the ocean views and Tybee breezes. Pack the cooler, grab a chair and head to the beach through the end of the street beach access that is only steps away. We know how tough it is to find a good parking spot at Tybee, so until you decide to build use the lot as a perfect parking space for you, your family and friends. This is a very rare lot find on Tybee, don't miss out on being this close to the beach because it may be years before another like it comes around!
