Your Home Search Ends Here! Enter through your private driveway onto over two and a half acres with main house and detached apartment with 180 degree marsh views. Walking through your double front doors you are immediately greeted by the full view of the marsh and tons of natural light illuminating the beautiful bamboo floors of your living area. Dining room and sitting room to either side lead you into your living room focused around the beautiful fireplace. To your left is a beautiful gourmet kitchen and eat in breakfast area which lead you into a large screened porch overlooking the huge backyard! Continuing back through the home you find three bedrooms and your master suite with beautiful marsh views to wake up to. In the first bedroom is a staircase to your absolutely gigantic attic which can be built out into a entertainment area or additional living space. In addition to the main house you also have a newly renovated 1bed/1bath detached efficiency apartment perfect for guests.
