Huge Price Reduction!. This stately STVR Duplex is one of Historic Savannah's oldest homes and even has a Wikipedia page. Last year saw an incredible amount of work to secure this home's bright future, including a new roof, roof supports, foundation work, 24 new custom wood sashes, insulation, and much more. The home maintains its Historic details, with wide plank heartpine floors, plentiful windows, and a private courtyard. With Hard to get, 2 NON-OWNER OCCUPIED STVR permits, ideal location, and plenty of neighborhood parking and charm, it's an investor's dream. Sitting on Green Square, this home was built in 1810 for Reverend Henry Cunningham. It later served as the first orphanage before being divided into a duplex. This area of Savannah is the most original of the historic district, and a tourist favorite with tabby sidewalks and horse-drawn carriages.

Built in 1810
